

Careers

Employment Opportunities

Mid-Level Litigation Associate (3+ years experience)

Delfino Madden is seeking an attorney with three to five years of litigation experience. Case management and deposition experience required, trial experience is a plus. Strong research and writing skills, and law and motion practice required. Employment litigation experience strongly preferred, but not required.

Corporate Associate (2+ years experience)

Delfino Madden is seeking an associate attorney with two to four years of corporate or transactional experience to join our Corporate practice group. Delfino Madden's Corporate practice group provides outside general counsel services for nonprofit organizations and for-profit companies, and also acts as transaction counsel in all types of financing and joint venture transactions, including mergers and acquisitions. Strong research and document drafting skills required.

Family Law Legal Assistant

Delfino Madden is seeking an experienced legal assistant to work in its family law practice. The successful candidate should have proficiency with Microsoft Outlook and Word, preparation of law and motion documents, litigation calendaring and service requirements, and must be able to work well with clients and assist the assigned attorneys in balancing multiple litigation tasks. The culture within our family law practice is exceptionally upbeat and equally fast-paced, so the successful candidate must be a team player and very well-organized. Family law experience is preferred but not required.

The firm offers an excellent compensation and benefit package and a collegial, friendly working environment. Please submit resumes online to info@delfinomadden.com. Equal Opportunity Employer.